SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Martin of Tours

November 11 Memorial

Born of pagan parents in what is now Hungary and raised in Italy, this son of a veteran soldier was forced at age 15 to serve in the army. He became a Christian catechumen and was baptized at 18. It was said he lived more like a monk than a soldier. Once Martin saw a beggar shivering in the cold. He tore his military cloak in two, giving the beggar half. That night Jesus appeared to Martin in a dream, saying, "Martin the catechumen has clothed me." He was imprisoned when he announced he couldn't kill anyone, saying, "I am a soldier of Christ and it is not lawful for me to fight." After great difficulties he was discharged and went to live as a hermit. He was ordained an exorcist and worked with great zeal against heretics. Other men joined Martin, creating the first monastic community in Gaul. After 10 years the townspeople of Tours demanded that he become their bishop. He hid from them, only to be betrayed by a flock of honking geese. Whether that story's true or not, goose became the main course at medieval St. Martin's Day celebrations, possibly influencing the Pilgrims' first Thanksgiving dinner; when not enough geese could be found, turkeys were substituted. As a bishop, Martin raised objections when heretics were being put to death, pleading with the emperor against the bloodbath. Agreeing to a truce with his opponent, Martin's conscience later bitterly accused him for the agreement. As death approached, he prayed, "Lord, if your people still need me, I do not refuse the work. Your will be done." Martin died in Tours in 397 and is one of several patron saints of France.

On November 11 we honor and remember all who have served in the United States Armed Forces. Thank you, veterans, for your sacrifice.

FAITH FORMATION

Last Sunday we had a candle lit procession before Mass, remembering the souls who passed through our churches by either funeral Masses or graveside services over the last year. We had our Family Faith Formation afterward and worked to create our individual Family Faith Trees. We recalled the history of our faith traditions being passed on to us by family, friends and special encounters. We challenge all families to remember loved ones who have passed on with daily prayers especially during the month of November. It is our duty to pray for those in Purgatory. When they get to Heaven, they will pray for us! One idea is to display a picture(s) of departed loved ones and be reminded of your daily prayer obligation every time you pass by. Or pray as a family at mealtime or before bed remembering them by name. Research the prayer of St. Gertrude if you need words for a powerful prayer for those in Purgatory.

Next Family Faith Session is Sunday, November 13, in Varysburg after 9:30 Mass until 12 noon. Bring your Bibles as we dive into "The Creation Story" together!

Families absent from our last gathering missed annual Safe Environment training for your children. Watch for an email version of the material we ask you to teach at home.

While recognizing the autonomy of the reality of politics, Christians who are invited to take up political activity should try to make their choices consistent with the Gospel.

A NOVEMBER PRAYER FOR THE HOLY SOULS
 God our Father, your power brings us to birth, your providence guides our lives, and by your command we return to dust. Lord, those who die still live in your presence, their lives changed but not ended. We pray for our families and friends and for all the dead known to you alone. In company with Christ, who died and now lives, may they rejoice in your kingdom. One day unite us together again to sing your praises for ever and ever. Amen.
