Wednesday Morning Book Club is about to begin again! Join us after the 8:30 am Mass, then rosary, starting on September 27, in the Attica basement. We'll be discovering the $10 book, How to Be Somebody, although the first three weeks we'll be viewing some great videos. Our most-inspiring leader, Marian Nappo, has been motivating up to 25 Book Club members since 2018. Sign up at the rectory (585-591-1228), come, enjoy great fellowship, and feel your spiritual life grow! All are welcome!!

Can't attend morning Mass? We are now celebrating Mass Thursday evenings at 7 pm in Attica. Following Mass we are having Eucharistic Adoration and also Confessions. God dwells in our midst, in the Blessed Sacrament of the altar. ~St. Maximilian Kolbe

Labor Day has come and gone as well as our great annual Chicken BBQ! The weather was perfect, our work environment, beautiful, thanks to the renovators who went above and beyond to make this work area spacious and comfortable to meet all our needs. Thank you for your outstanding teamwork in accomplishing any task that needed to be done. Those who worked behind the scenes, the kitchen help, the cooks, the publicity people, as well as the parking attendants, all need to be commended for a job well done. Our task was to sell out, and with God's grace, many prayers, smiles on our faces, and the energy of our children, the goal that was set - was met! Thank you to all in our Parish Family who took the time to enjoy a chicken dinner with us. May God continue to bless and grow this dear Catholic Christian Community. Thanks again for your enthusiasm and efforts in making this a successful event!

Prayer for the Anniversary of 9/11

O God, our hope and refuge, in our distress we come to you. Shock and horror of the tragic day have subsided, replaced with emptiness and a longing for innocence lost. We come, remembering in hope, reminded of the illusion of security, and thankful for your presence in all our times of need. In memory of this grievous day, we pray for the grace to heal, unite, and serve with love.

Amen.

There are several dates for Mass Intentions available. Masses are offered for the deceased, for health, for birthday or anniversary blessings, in thanksgiving, etc. Please contact the rectory if you'd like to schedule a Mass Intention. A $15 donation is suggested.
