Catholic Charities of Buffalo officially turns 100 years old on Monday, October 30! Born of a collection of Buffalo institutions serving young and old, it was incorporated on October 30, 1923. In the first year 12,500 people received help. Last year over 134,000 were served. At this centennial milestone, deep gratitude and thanks are offered to the hands, hearts and souls who, past and present, serve our neighbors in need.
